DR. G. DOCHERTY TALKS ON LOST WONDER SENSE AT DINNER HERE

Rev. Dr. George M. Docherty, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C., spoke on "The Lost Sense of Wonder" to more than one hundred delegates to the 43rd annual convention banquet of the Woman's General League of the Gettysburg College. It was held Thursday night in the Eddie Plank Memorial Gymnasium.

"Without this sense of wonder," he said, "we cannot truly understand democracy, or patriotism, or religion."

The speaker is a native of Scotland, having come to the United States only four years ago, and he spoke with the traditional heavy Scotch burr. His talk was re-broadcast later over WGET.

Dr. Docherty gave "two reasons for our lost sense of wonder." The first was "our technological age, which outstrips the imagination." He mentioned some everyday machines and said, "They are miracles. But we are so filled with wonderful gadgets that we accept them as commonplace. We have lost the wonder of childhood fantasies."

Called Essential Sense

The second reason for this loss, he said, "is the trend of education, which has become pragmatic, rather than imaginative. Our training is in science rather than in the classics, because what can you do with a dead language? The tendency today is for one to apply himself to making ends meet. . . . We see the biological connections in the field of flowers, but gone are the days when we saw them as creations of beauty, with pixies and fairies among them."

Dr. Docherty said that this sense of wonder is essential to an un-

ASPERS CLUB GIVEN AWARD AT 4-H EVENT

The Aspers Community 4-H Club was presented with the annual outstanding club award Thursday night at the Adams County 4-H banquet held at the Gettysburg High School cafeteria, in honor of the county's 32 local 4-H club leaders.

County Farm Agent Frank S. Zettle presented the award to the Aspers club's local leaders, Mrs. Garnet Coble and Mrs. Clair Winand, and the club president, Garnet Coble Jr. Reading a list of activities in which the Aspers club participated, including serving both the Aspers and Bendersville fire company carnivals and assisting with Red Cross and similar drives, Zettle said the Aspers club had been picked "because of its outstanding record of service to the community, as well as for its excellent participation in county 4-H affairs."

Assistant County Agent Fred Attinger presented pins to the local leaders for distribution to the members of their clubs who had completed the assigned work during the year. More than 350 youngsters will receive the pins.

Give Achievement Medals

Attinger also presented medals to the county winners in the National 4-H Achievement contest. They included Nancy Slusser, Littlestown; Janet Beitman, Gardners; Nancy Tate, Ardenville; Roy Weaver Jr., Gettysburg R. 4; Glenn Rex, Aspers; James Behney, York Springs; and Francis Murren, Hanover R. 4, who was presented with the "alumni recognition" medal.

Cling To Car Over Cliff Brink

PITTSBURGH (AP)—With the rear wheels of his auto over the brink of a cliff which drops 500 feet, C. M. Davis grimly stuck to the wheel early today until six women passengers got out and police arrived to pull back the car.

The near-tragedy occurred in suburban Sheraden, Davis, 40, of Pittsburgh, was taking six women home from an evening of bowling when the motor stalled on a steep street and the car began to drift backward until the rear wheels were over the hillside.

Pressing hard on the brakes, Davis managed to hold the car in its precarious position while the women clambered out. Police arrived in a patrol car and hooked a skid chain to Davis' car. A tow truck arrived shortly afterward and pulled the auto back on the road.

LEAGUE WOMEN HEAR TALKS BY COLLEGE PROFS

Several faculty members of Gettysburg College explained "The Curriculum in Action" Thursday afternoon before the Woman's General League in Christ Chapel at which 200 women were in attendance.

Dean W. E. Tilberg, who introduced the speakers, announced that the three phases of the subject were "the educational objectives of a liberal arts college, a liberal arts college in relation to the professions and the art of living and guidance and personnel services."

Dr. William F. Shaffer, professor of Greek, stressed the word "liberal," meaning free, and said "a student in such a college is free to search as he wills, unrestricted in scope and spirit, which is the true purpose of a liberal arts education."

"Should Be Selective"

Dr. Earl Bowen, of the biology department, said, "We should be selective. We must study the past to give an appreciation for the present and a perspective for the future."

"It is more costly to send a liberal arts student to a liberal arts school," said Dr. Norman E. Richardson, professor of philosophy, "but there are four advantages to be gained. The student will have a curriculum which can be unified and interrelated; he will find a teaching set-up emphasizing (Continued on Page 2)

RIDING CLUB TO RIDE TRAIL TO CALEDONIA PARK

Plans were completed for a special trail ride and officers were elected Thursday evening at the monthly meeting of the Carroll Adams Riding Club in the clubhouse at Sunset Hill Farm, near Littlestown.

On Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, members of the riding club will leave from Little Acres, the David and Marion Little farm, Littlestown R. 1, for Mt. Holly Springs. The horses will be taken by van to Camp Michaux, from which point the ride will begin. It will continue over nineteen miles of the Appalachian Trail to Caledonia. When the traffic line stopped suddenly, Bartley was unable to stop soon enough and his truck struck Neuman's left rear fender. Police estimated the damage to Neuman's car at $35.

$1,000 DAMAGE, HOLD DRIVER IN THREE CRASHES

Damage totalled more than $1,000 but no one was hurt in three accidents on county highways Thursday evening.

In one of the crashes an operator continued without stopping, but was later located: in a second crash one vehicle ran into the rear of another and in the third crash a truck and car, attempting to pass in a concrete one-way bridge, found themselves so tightly wedged together that tow trucks had to be used to get them apart.

Griest Jr., Flora Dale, and placed in the Adams County jail in default of bail to await a hearing.

Test Pilot Rides To His Death As U.S. Sea-Dart, World's Fastest Seaplane, Breaks Apart, Bursts Into Flames And Plunges Into San Diego Harbor

By VERN HAUGLAND
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The Convair YF2Y1 Sea-Dart, the world's fastest seaplane, broke apart, burst into flames and plunged into San Diego harbor yesterday.

Its pilot, Charles E. Richbourg, rode the forefront of the delta-wing, needle-nosed jet fighter to his death before the shocked eyes of hundreds of spectators, among them his wife Margaret.

Mrs. Richbourg, mother of their two small children, only last Saturday helped her husband celebrate his 31st birthday. The sight of his burning, crumbling plane disintegrating before her left her dazed, and a friend led her quickly to an automobile.

Navy Opens Probe

The Navy promptly launched an investigation, and today had divers exploring the bottom of the bay, some 40 feet deep, for bits of

Wreckage Which Might Help Explain the Accident

Capt. F. K. Slason, Navy Bureau of Aeronautics representative at the Convair plant here, said he was at a complete loss as to the cause.

"We just don't know why it happened, but we intend to try to find out," he told reporters.

Topped Speed Of Sound

Richbourg had flown the Sea-Dart off from the bay only a few minutes earlier on a regular test flight which a group of more than a hundred visiting aviation writers had been invited to watch. The Navy was especially proud of its ownership of the world's first jet-powered seaplane fighter because of the way in which it combined the speed of land-based jets with the versatility of water-based aircraft.

Fairfield Joint School System Will Dedicate New Building

Fairfield Joint School System will dedicate its new $315,000 school addition Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Dr. Harry Musselman, a retired Lancaster pastor and formerly of Fairfield, as the dedicatory speaker.

The program will open with a procession during which the faculty, school board, and school authority members will march into the new auditorium at the school. Supervising principal George Inskip will preside and musical numbers will be presented by the band and the glee club of the school.

The new structure houses the Fairfield joint high school in one wing and an eight-room elementary unit in another, with the two schools combined through the cafeteria and gymnasium-auditorium.

2nd Addition In 4 Years

The new building contains 21 classrooms, plus the cafeteria, the auditorium-gymnasium, shower rooms, office, band room, shop, student activity room and a faculty room.

And it marks a tremendous expansion since 1950 when only the original structure, the four-room Hamiltonban consolidated school, was located on the site.

In 1951 the first addition to the original four-room elementary school was made, bringing the number of classrooms there to five and adding a science room, a home economics room, a library, cafeteria and kitchen.

Have U-Shaped Building

With a rapidly expanding student population and with the resumption of a high school, that 1951 addition soon proved too small, and the present 30,366 square feet of new building were needed.

When the first addition to the consolidated school was made it was constructed on the rear of the original school. The new addition gives the structure a "U" shape, with the elementary school in the eastern arm of the "U," the high school in the western arm and the cafeteria, gym, etc., across the bottom of the "U," or the southern side of the structure.

Crossing the top of the "U" is a 120-foot covered unloading ramp. There are 550 students in the two schools in the building, 258 of them in the high school portion. Eight buses, which transport $75 of the 650 students in the joint school system, stop daily at the unloading ramp to discharge or pick up about 500 of the youngsters. The other youngsters in the jointure attend the Orrtanna and Fairfield elementary schools.

End Temporary Setups

The new building contains 572,396

CD AND CHIEFS GIVEN TARGETS FOR NEXT TEST

Adams County will hold "if not its biggest, at least its most unusual" Civil Defense test this month, County Fire Marshal John Murren told the county fire chiefs association at its meeting Thursday evening, at Brushtown.

The targets for the test will be a farm house, barn and other structures on a farm recently purchased by the Alwine Brick Co. of New Oxford.

The company wishes to remove the structures and has turned them over to the county fire chiefs and Civil Defense for use in the test.

Murren and Civil Defense Director

William G. Weaver said clearance has been obtained from state CD officials to hold a simulated air raid test that will involve the entire Civil Defense organization in the county. No public participation is planned, however, because the state "frowns on" the holding of air raid tests in which the public is alerted other than those covering several states.

Will Mail Notice

Tentative plans call for a simulated yellow alert to be received by all of the CD units. There will be no call to the Civil Defense officials. Instead they will be sent letters in advance giving the time and date and will simulate that they received the call.

At that time all CD units, welfare, fire, auxiliary police, etc. will be ready for action.

Most of the county fire companies will pump water during the test. Other with a large water carrying capacity, will be dispersed to "provide protection in case the fire spreads" from the simulated bombing. A number of persons will act as "casualties" and first aid and welfare units will be called. There will be a problem in "evacuation." Fire and auxiliary police will handle traffic and other details.

Every attempt will be made to make the test as realistic as possible and to involve many problems.

One of the "problems" currently being considered is that of the spectator. The fire chiefs expect that "lots of people" will want to witness the test, but in an actual air raid, the general public would be kept away from any bombed area.

The chiefs were shown a new ambulance by C. W. Epley Jr. President Eugene Murren presided with 20 members present.

APPLY FOR LICENSE

Donald E. Seigman, Littlestown R. 2, and Arlene Louise May, Dillsburg R. 1, have filed application for a marriage license in York.

Messrs. Stuckey and Greenwalt were selected as delegates to the state organization and Dannelley and Buohl were chosen as alternates.

NURSES WILL CHECK GRADES STATE MISSED

Fifth and ninth grade pupils in the public and parochial schools of the county will receive vision and hearing tests this year in spite of a state decision to omit those grades from the annual health examinations for odd-numbered grades throughout the state.

The School Nurses Association of Adams County at a meeting Wednesday evening in the new faculty lounge at Gettysburg High School protested the state decision and voted to carry out the hearing and vision checks as their own project in the fifth and ninth grades.

The nurses said that a number of parents have told them they feel the state is making a mistake in omitting those grades from the regular examinations. Parents have expressed hope that some other means could be found to have those grades checked. About 350 pupils in the Gettysburg Joint School system alone are involved.

Meet Next In December

The nurses said it may be possible to check the two grades in question before January 1. They said the tests definitely will be made before the end of the school year.

The president of the nurses' group, Mrs. Gladys Border, Hanover, presided at Wednesday's meeting at which there was a discussion of the mental hygiene conference held in October at Harrisburg. There were reports also on the PSEA roundtable for school nurses also held in Harrisburg last month.

Plans were made for an early meeting with the local school health councils.

The next meeting of the nurses' group will be held December 9 in Gettysburg.

Mrs. Paul L. Roy, narrator, introduced the models as she reminisced from a "family album" in a 19th century living room. Models, dressed in authentic gowns of the period, stepped on the stage through a large simulated antique-gold frame.

Ramer in an ivory brocade gown as "Alicia"; Mrs. George J. Evanko in rust silk trimmed with an ivory lace bertha as "cousin Mary"; Mrs. James Treas in a gold and brown dress as "Miss Molly"; Miss Shirley Wagaman in a white lace and volle gown as "Lila"; Mrs. David James in a white lace gown and a blue picture hat as "Lila"; Mrs. Francis Groft in a navy silk gown with a black fur muff as "Lucille"; Mrs. Leo McDermitt and Mrs. Roth in swimming bloomer as the "beach girls of the nineties"; Mrs. Richard Sites in black satin and a rose-trimmed black hat as "Becky"; and Mrs. Joseph H. DIVIDE BLAME FOR DEATH OF BOY CYCLIST AT NEW OXFORD

Pointing to a need for greater care by motorists and bicycle riders on the highway, a coroner's jury Thursday evening divided blame for the traffic death Sunday noon of William Brown, 13, New Oxford, on the Lincoln Highway.

The Brown boy was fatally injured while crossing the Lincoln Highway on his bicycle a half mile east of New Oxford when he was struck by a new car operated by Norman Sponseller, 18, of near Hampton. The boy's skull was fractured and his neck broken.

The jury wrote: "We believe the Brown boy attempted to cross the highway when the crossing could not be made safely and we believe the Sponseller car was being operated at an excessive speed and that the driver was not exercising proper caution."

Conflicting Testimony

Eye-witness versions of the accident, which included that of Sponseller who waived his rights to be silent and took the witness stand, were marked more by their contradictions than by their points of agreement.

Sponseller said he was driving 45 miles an hour and sounded his horn twice for the benefit of the cyclists before the accident. Other witnesses heard no horn and said Sponseller was going "fast" and "rocking" and "weaving" before his car struck and killed the Brown boy. There was a difference in testimony, too, about where the boys were on the road as Sponseller approached.

Pvt. Robert Brady of the state police at Gettysburg, who investigated, said witnesses' accounts on the stand at the inquest were unchanged from the statements they gave him after the accident.

MRS. H. WALKER TO AGAIN HEAD WOMAN'S LEAGUE

Mrs. Howard O. Walker, York, was re-elected president of the Woman's General League at closing exercises of the two-day convention of the organization in the auditorium of the SCA building this morning.

Others re-elected were: Vice president, Mrs. J. Leon Haines, Baltimore; recording secretary, Mrs. James M. Singer, Bloomsburg; statistical secretary, Mrs. Page M. Schildnecht, Lancaster; treasurer, Mrs. E. Martin Grove, Harrisburg; and historian, Mrs. G. E. McCamey, Conshohocken.

Mrs. Frank H. Kramer, Gettysburg, was elected registrar to replace Mrs. Parker B. Wagnild.

Mrs. Walter C. Langsam, wife of Dr. Langsam, president of Gettysburg College, was the installing officer. In remarks to the league women, Mrs. Langsam said she was "edified to discover how much love there is in the spirit of Gettysburg College. What a stranger love on a visit to the campus! What love a student gives to the visitor. Love," she said, "has inspired generation after generation of youths on the campus. It has been passed on from student to teacher to the alumni. Good teachers are drawn to the college not by salaries alone. They have a deeper interest, that of developing the student."

Keep Interest Alive

"The students have felt this," said Mrs. Langsam, "they have blossomed into good alumni and kept the warmth of the institution alive. Love brought about the organization of the League—love for Gettysburg College and all its interests. Love has inspired the League leaders."

"I wonder," she continued, "if the League members know what a priceless thing they have in this organization. Many colleges have alumni groups and auxiliaries but I have never seen anything like the Woman's League before in any other college. The way the members keep in touch with the school and its interests is wonderful. Through these yearly meetings the women continue to share in the school's life. By keeping in touch with the college you women will be able to make your influence felt at home, in the church and throughout other states. Even though we are a minority, we can exert an influence for good as the early Christians did when they, too, were a minority."

coroner, said he is undecided about charges to be filed against Sponseller. The driver was represented by Attorney J. Francis Yake at the inquest.

Pvt. Brady told the jury there was nothing to indicate Sponseller made "any great effort" to stop his car before the collision. There was nothing to prevent the driver from the seeing the boys on bicycles for a considerable distance as he approached, Brady added.

First witness was Ira Williams, Gettysburg photographer, who displayed photographs of the victim and his smashed bicycle at the scene of the accident.

Tell Of "High Speed"
Harry Hull, 13, cousin of the victim, was riding near him when the crash occurred. He said he and Brown were riding to the drive-in theater where they worked and intended to ride in an alleyway on the north side of the road near where the fatality occurred. Preparing to cross, Hull said he looked back and saw the Sponseller car coming but did not think the Brown boy looked back before he turned. He said the car was coming "fast" and "sort of rocking." He did not see Brown signal a turn and heard no horn. He said the other boy was hit near the north edge of the center lane of the highway.

Ned Crist, Columbia, who approached the scene from the east just after the crash first saw Sponseller's car off the north edge of the highway as the driver strove for control and then the Sponseller car returned to its side of the road and stopped. He quoted Sponseller as saying the boy "followed him across the highway and he couldn't get away from him."

Leon Brady, McSherrystown, who had met Sponseller's new red auto just after Brady had passed the boys on bicycles. Brady was going west and Sponseller east. Brady placed the other car's speed at "60 miles an hour and then I'm giving him a break."

90 Minutes Of Testimony
Just after Sponseller got past the Brady car, the former started to "weave all over the road" and Brady said to a companion "That fellow had a blowout and he's going to hit those boys." A checkup later showed there was no blowout.

Allen Orndorff, McSherrystown, Brady's companion who watched the collision through Brady's rear window, agreed generally with Brady's version but said the Sponseller car swerved left after getting past the Brady machine.

Sponseller said he did not see the bicyclists until he passed the Brady car "because of a rise in the road."

The taking of testimony required an hour and a half and the jury spent another half hour in reaching a verdict. Members of the jury were Mervin Singley, Paul Kargas, Charles T. Ziegler, James Plank, Carl Prosser and Hugh C. McIlhenry.

OFFICIAL CALLS DIXON-YATES CONTRACT 'FAIR'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes has declared the disputed Dixon-Yates contract is an "entirely fair" business transaction. He urged the Senate-House Atomic Committee to waive its authority to delay the big Tennessee Valley power plant project.

Hughes told the committee that the proposed contract, whereby private power would be fed into Tennessee Valley Authority lines under contract with the Atomic Energy Commission, is "a splendid example" of the working of the free enterprise system.

Conceding that "it has been said" the power will cost more than if TVA itself supplied the electricity, Hughes said the reported cost "cannot be the deciding factor."

Without giving his own estimate as to the extra expense, the budget director said about 70 per cent of the differential results from the fact that the private utility would have to pay state and local taxes and a higher interest rate on borrowed money.

Hughes was called before the Test Pilot

wobbled sharply, turning first its flat base and its equally flat upper side toward us.

Starts Coming Apart

"What kind of maneuver is that?" one watcher exclaimed. Then, incredibly, the machine started coming apart. There was a bright puff of flame, and the craft poised upward. "Look out, it's going to explode!" someone shouted.

The plane was only about 300 feet above the water and possibly that far at sea. As the fuselage broke up, fuel lines parted, pouring a petroleum mixture into the hot jet stream. There was a great, brilliant sheet of fire, and black debris showered from it.

Faces Are Strained

For a moment the searing heat of the exploding fuel stung our faces, despite the distance between us and the disintegrating plane. Some of the watchers flung themselves to the ground to escape the flames and the flying wreckage.

Rescue boats swung into action. Divers found the front part of the wreckage and extricated the pilot within three minutes. He died, however, before an ambulance could start him toward a hospital.

The tragedy wiped out the elation the group of observers had experienced a few hours earlier in watching the first public demonstration of the Navy's Convair Pogo Stick XPY1 experimental fighter plane.

Does Strange Things

That odd looking craft took off straight upward, hovered, backed down to a landing on its tail, then took off vertically again, swung over through a graceful arc into a horizontal position, flew around like a fast fighter airplane — which is what it is meant to be — and then descended vertically to earth again.

J. F. (Skeets) Coleman, a veteran test pilot, put the plane through its remarkable paces and called the craft the easiest kind of a plane to operate.

TYPHOON NEAR CHINA

MANILA (AP)—Typhoon Pamela, with winds up to 150 miles an hour, lurched into the China Sea today and took dead aim at the Communist Chinese coast.

The Philippine Weather Bureau said the storm was moving west-northwest at 14 miles an hour and might slam into the Red mainland south of Hong Kong within 24 hours.

Pamela, whipping up wild winds on a 400-mile front, passed between southern Formosa and the northern Philippines earlier today.

NEW SESSION FOR GRAND JURY

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—The Erie County November grand jury held another session Thursday with Dist. Atty. Damian McLaughlin seeking more indictments of men he says were involved in an alleged gambling syndicate.

McLaughlin says he is rushing work on the indictments so trials may begin this month. Wednesday 13 men were indicted on charges of bribery and conspiracy. They are owners of cigar stores or shoe shine parlors.

Mayor Thomas W. Flatley, a Democrat; former Police Inspector Jack Martin and 21 others await grand jury action. Eight more men, whom McLaughlin says are involved in the alleged syndicate, face preliminary hearings.

Most of the men were arrested in a sweeping raid Oct. 16. McLaughlin, a Republican, said the raid cracked a gambling ring in numbers play which netted 20 million dollars a year.

Flatley is charged with violation of his oath of office, conspiracy and accepting bribes.

THANK YOU — Adams Countians!

We want to take this opportunity to express our thanks to the members of various Republican Committees, the loyal party workers and to all the other voters who supported the Republican candidates at the polls on Tuesday. Their unswerving loyal support and steadfastness enabled us to win a majority for our Congressman and our Representative in the General Assembly. It is unfortunate that we failed by only 92 votes to attain a majority for our Gubernatorial candidate. However, our thanks go out to all who helped in any way.

The company has leased 3,000 square feet of floor space from the

Today's Talk
FOR THE LOVE OF IT
People who devote their lives to the thing that interests them most, and from which they gain the greatest satisfaction, to me seem to be living out the most natural of lives.
A friend recently told me the story of a wealthy and extremely successful man who had a great love for the circus. His love for it was so great that each year—for some fifty years—he arranged with a great circus to be one of its regular clowns during several months of its popular season. And all because he loved it, and was so proud of the opportunity to bring hope and cheer to thousands of children, and grownups as well.
The thing we put our heart into is the most valuable of all the tasks which we perform. I recently read of a railroad man who retired, but so fond had he become of the whistle of the trains, and the atmosphere about the station where he worked, that he built a home right near it so that he might live out his days in surroundings so familiar and beloved.
I believe the happiest people in this world are those who do the things they most love to do, regardless of whether it is financially profitable, or whether it is popular to do so.
"Grandma" Moses took up painting at the age of seventy-five, not because she wanted to earn money, but because she wanted to do something for the love of it. It's when we do things for this reason that we suddenly learn the full significance of happiness and the spiritual satisfaction it brings.
A friend showed me through his garden recently. It was beautifully arranged, and all the work that went into it he did himself. His selection of trees, flowers, and the landscaping was his own. He could well afford to hire others to do it, but he spent all his odd time doing it all himself—for the love of it!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "School Days"

THE RECORD
Within the record books appears
The list of winners down the years.
The dates correctly are displayed,
What time, what goals, what runs were made,
But only this from start to close:
Who won, who lost the record shows.
The columns tell the final score
And after that but little more.
The game is done; the alibi
Will promptly be allowed to die.
The record keepers all refuse
To list the reason losers lose.
Upon the page no line is seen
To tell the world what might have been.
It won't appear, the contest done,
With luck the loser could have won.
Who won or lost the books will show
Which seems to be enough to know.

State Is Producing Enough Cider

chew and squeeze industry is turning out enough apple cider in Penn-battleship. With bins bulging with the largest crop in years, more set up cider mills in an effort to

A few raisins, rock candy or al-

CONGRESSIONAL PROBES ARE TO BE EXPECTED
By ROWLAND EVANS JR.
WASHINGTON (AP)—The searchlight of congressional investigations during the next two years,
under the guidance of Democrats, is certain to pry inquisitively into the private life of the Eisenhower administration.
Some Democrats said today they want no "political circus"—but, traditionally, opposition-controlled Congress, with an eye on the next elections, probe more closely into executive branch doings than when their own party holds the White House.
Conversations with several Democrats indicate a new Democratic Congress will concentrate on these major "studies" of the Eisenhower administration:
Six Top Subjects
1. The civil service job system, and whether a recent administration order really has made a "shambles" of the merit system as charged by Sen. Johnston (D-SC). Johnston is in line for the chairmanship of the Senate Civil Service Committee.
2. The off-credit Republican claim that the Eisenhower administration "got rid of thousands" of Communist, fellow travelers and other security risks hired by the old Truman administration.
3. Administration policies on power, public lands and natural resources. One target is the Dixon-Yates project to feed private power into a public power system, and Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas said yesterday there would be a "thorough ventilation" of that plan.
4. Post office Department policies which some Democrats say have fostered the expulsion of postmasters appointed by previous Democratic administrations on flimsy charges of malfeasance in office.
Johnson said in an interview
he wants to get "to the bottom" of accusations that post office inspectors are taking orders from GOP county chairmen.
5. Fiscal and monetary decisions taken by the administration, with an accent on what Gore called the "hard money policy."
6. Defense contracts, mobilization plans, and strategy matters such as administration plans for building up the Air Force.

High Court DENIES APPEAL $1,000 DAMAGE
found later about 1 1/2 miles away on the Quaker Valley Rd. Damage to each car was estimated at $100.
Timmy Gitchmas, 30, Hanover, was driving east along the Lincoln Highway six miles east of here at 5:10 o'clock Thursday night when a car operated east by Paul Neuschwander Jr., 24, Pottstown, ran into the rear of the Gitchmas auto, police said. Damage totalled $225.
Wedge In Narrow Bridge
John A. Shepard, 39, Gardners R.
3, operating a truck north and John T. Alexander, 40, Aspers R.
1, driving a car south, were said by police to be the two men whose vehicles became wedged in the concrete bridge one-half mile north of Bendersville on the Mt. Tabor Rd. at 5:15 o'clock Thursday night.
Police said both men apparently tried to go through the one way bridge at the same time. The left front ends of both vehicles came together, the right sides were against the concrete walls of the bridge, and there they stuck. Damage was estimated at $600 to the two vehicles.
Beginnings of agricultural fairs can be traced back to Old Testament times when the Prophet Ezekiel wrote of fairs filled with livestock and metal-ware, embroidery and spices.

Farewell Luncheon For Sommerlatte
MOSCOW (AP)—U. S. Ambassador
Charles E. Bohlen gave a farewell luncheon Thursday for Karl Som-merlatte, second secretary at the U. S. Embassy, and Mrs. Sommer-latte.
Mrs. Sommerlatte has been declared persona non grata (undesirable) by the Soviet government as the outgrowth of a picture taking incident here Oct. 25. Her husband has been transferred to another assignment in Washington.
They will leave by plane today.
Bohlen and many members of the United States and other Western diplomatic corps plan to go to Moscow Airport to bid them farewell.

Bullets Hope To Spring Surprise Against Strong Delaware Team Saturday

There is little doubt the most difficult assignment of the entire campaign awaits the Gettysburg College Bullets Saturday afternoon when the powerful University of Delaware will be met on Memorial Field at 2 o'clock.

Muhlenberg's surprise 14-13 decision over the Blue Hens last Saturday is expected to make the visitors an even tougher opponent. That upset snapped a 10-game winning streak for Delaware who admittedly cherished hopes for an undefeated season.

In commenting on the coming game Coach Johnny Yoviscin of the Bullets said: "We wish Delaware would have been able to come here unbeaten. The defeat is going to make it even tougher for us as Delaware will probably be on the rebound. I'm sure our squad will be 'up' for the game as we know we will have to play 60 minutes of fine ball."

Pieper Definitely Out
Coach Yoviscin revealed that Bruce Pieper, junior halfback, who ran wild against Muhlenberg two weeks ago, will definitely miss the game. Pieper was injured early in the game at Lafayette last week. Frank Eckert, 190-pound junior tackle, has re-injured his leg but may be ready for limited duty.

The remainder of the squad is in good condition. Inclement weather forced the Bullets to hold limited outdoor drills Tuesday and Wednesday but a more strenuous session was held Thursday.

Delaware will bring virtually the same squad here as that which handed Gettysburg a 19-7 defeat last year at Newark. That reverse kept the Bullets from an unbeaten season as they went on to sweep their remaining eight games.

Principal losses via graduation to the Hens were John Borresen, tackle, and Frank Serpico, end, both of whom were named to the mythical all-Middle Six first team.

Miller Among Best
Don Miller, quarterback, who was also named to the first Middle Six team last year, is back directing the team. Miller, an excellent passer, rates as one of the best small college quarterbacks in the country.

Miller is one of 16 lettermen performing for Coach Dave Nelson. Veterans who are certain to see action against the Bullets include Captain Dan Ford, Jim Zaiser, Tony Candeloro, Jim Flynn, and Miller, backs; Tom Redfield and Martin Apostolico, ends; Steve Butcher, Nick Mergo and Tom Oves, tackles; Jim Cooper, Gordon Murray and Bob Trivette, guards, and Frank Gyetvan, center.

Delaware is rated a three or four-touchdown favorite over the Bullets but the current football season has been full of startling upsets and the locals hope to add another to the long string.

The Hens swept through their first five games as follows: West Chester 40-6; Lehigh 21-0; Temple 51-13; New Hampshire 19-13, and Connecticut 28-7. Then came the amazing Muhlenberg setback.

Expect Big Crowd
Gettysburg, with a 2-3 mark, has met two common foes, Lehigh and the Bullets 20-6 after which the Yoviscin-men thoroughly trounced Muhlenberg 34-0, lone conqueror of Delaware.

Saturday's game will mark the 10th in the series between the schools. Delaware holds a 5-4 edge. The bullets could do much to salvage a rough season by winning over the Hens and the game is expected to draw the largest crowd of the home campaign. Several hundred fans are expected to follow Delaware here.

A special feature at the game will be the costumed Hobo brass band of Pitman, N. J., which will present the half-time performance.

Globetrotters At Hershey On Nov. 24

HERSHEY, Pa., Nov. 5 — When the world-famous Harlem Globetrotters oppose the Toledo Mercurys in the feature game of a double-header on Wednesday, November 24, at the Hershey Sports Arena, basketball's highest-paid and most astonishing performer in history will be in Trotter togs continuing his onslaught on all scoring records.

This could only be the one and only "Goose" Tatum, imitable showman and performer deluxe, who has scored more points, field goals and free throws than any cager since the cage sport began. But mainly he is known throughout every nook and corner of the globe as the greatest showman and comedian ever to step into an athletic arena.

TIME NEAR TO SELECT TEAMS FOR BOWL PLAY

By RIP WATSON
The Associated Press

College football turns the corner tomorrow into November, the traditional month for determining the bowl game teams, and in this whacky season the teams who can't go to the bowls will be stealing the headlines from those who can.

UCLA, for example, finds itself in a painful position. The nation's top-ranked team can add to its prestige by whacking Oregon, but if it does, it will go a long way toward boosting Southern California, UCLA's bitter cross-town rival into the Rose Bowl. UCLA is ineligible this year, but the No. 10 team, Southern Cal., will be almost certain of the spot if the Trojans beat Stanford tomorrow.

Similarly, Oklahoma, the No. 3 team, is barred from another trip to Miami for the Orange Bowl this year, but the Sooners are the determining factor in the Big Seven conference. Oklahoma meets Iowa State, which doesn't figure to bother the Sooners tomorrow, but Nebraska and Missouri, the leading contenders at the moment, follow on the Oklahoma schedule.

Miami Faces Auburn
And the University of Miami, barred from bowl activity by an NCAA ruling, can add to its No. 6 ranking by whacking off-beaten Auburn tomorrow and following that up with victories over Alabama and Florida. Both of the latter are in the running for the South eastern Conference title, with designs on the Sugar or Cotton bowls.

Arkansas, the surprise team of 1954, will be going after its seventh consecutive victory against Rice, and another win by the fourth-ranked Porks would just about wrap up the Southwest Conference title and an automatic berth in the Cotton Bowl. They'll be in the bowl for sure if Texas A.M. should end its victory famine with an upset of Southern Methodist.

It's almost unheard of, however, for the Southwest Conference race to be decided so early and nobody would be surprised if Rice upended Arkansas, thereby throwing the race into the usual mad scramble.

Purdue, No. 8, is the only other team in the top 10 with a game that has bowl significance. The Boilermakers have only an outside chance of overhauling high-flying Ohio State in the Big Ten race. They won't have any chance at all if passer Len Dawson and runner Bill Murrakowski don't subdue Iowa, which is currently ranked 12th and anxious to get back in the select group.

Ohio State, ranked just behind UCLA in the poll, can't afford to let down against Pittsburgh, which already has bounced two teams (Navy and West Virginia) right out of the top 10.

HANS WINKLER WINS TROPHY AT HORSE SHOW

NEW YORK (AP)—Hans Winkler, world champion rider of 1954, won the President of Mexico Trophy yesterday at the National Horse Show. It was the fourth West German success in five international events during the show.

The Mexicans, who did not compete in the trophy event, finally broke into the victory column when Capt. Joaquin D'Harcourt completed two perfect rides on Petro-lero and Cordoves in the second phase of the three-part low score competition.

16 Points For Germans
His success left the Mexicans with 12 points to 16 for the runner-up Germans in the low-score event. Spain had 24 points, the United States 27½ and Canada 34 points.

The first championship of the show was decided last night when Bigeno, a 4-year-old grey gelding ridden by Robert Burke, won the Green Conformation Hunter title. Bigeno is owned by Ren Perry of Shaker Heights, Ohio.

Bigeno finished the seven-event competition with 18 points. Tight Spot, owned by Art Hanna of Paoli, Pa., had 17 points for reserve honors, and Auction, owned by the Maule Farms of West Grove, Pa., had 15½ points.

The working hunter leader, after three of the eight events in the class, was Bronze Wing, owned by Mrs. Walter Wickes of Northbrook, Pa.

PLAYOFF GAME HERE
Dover, champion of the York-Adams Soccer League, met James Buchanan High, Franklin County titlist, in a District 3 PIAA playoff game this afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Gettysburg College field.

Bullettes Gain 8th Hockey Win

Gettysburg College's girls' field hockey team won its sixth straight game Thursday afternoon, easily defeating Shippensburg State, 6-1, here. It was the eighth win in 10 games for the Bullettes, including three at the All-College tournament.

The girls will play in the Central Pennsylvania Tournament Saturday at Harrisburg, and will close their home season next Tuesday, against Penn Hall.

Shippensburg scored first in Thursday's game, after about 15 minutes of play but Gettysburg came back with two goals before half time, and ran up a commanding lead in the second half. Half-back Janice Gibson scored one goal, and each member of the forward line scored once apiece; Eleanor Jones, Barbara Clark, Louise Moyer, Judy Schaub and Alice Davis.

The junior varsity also whipped Shippensburg by a 4-0 count. It was the fourth win of the season for the Jayvees, whose record is blemished only by a tie. This is the first season of Jayvee competition for Gettysburg.

L-TOWN JUNIOR HIGH LOSES IN FINAL SECONDS

A story-book finish, featured by an 85-yard pass-touchdown play in the final 10 seconds of the game, gave the Hanover Junior High School Spiders a 6-0 victory over the Littlestown gridders Thursday evening at Littlestown.

Coach Freddie Hahenlen Jr.'s Spiders took the ball on downs from Littlestown on their own 10-yard line and on the second play Phil Berkeimer whipped a pass to Gary Smith who raced 85 yards for the only score of the game, Smith crossing the goal line as the game ended. Topper was smothered by the Little Flashes as he tried to run for the point.

The game was played in a rain storm which slowed up the attacks of both teams.

Littlestown threatened late in the first half when it drove to the Hanover 20. The Flashes were on the move again late in the final period when the Spiders stopped the drive on the 10 and followed with the sensational scoring play.

The lineups:

Hershey Moves Into 2nd Place; Nip Barons

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It doesn't take much these days to change the standings in the American Hockey League. The race is that close with only three points separating the first four teams.

Only one game was played last night. The Hershey Bears defeated the Cleveland Barons 3-2 in overtime and jumped into second place. The result left the Bears a point back of Cleveland and a like distance in front of third place Providence with Buffalo just another point back.

BIGLER JUNIOR HIGH GRIDDERS LOSE IN FINAL

Biglerville Junior High School's football team was knocked from the unbeaten class in its final game of the season Thursday afternoon at Shippensburg, 26-7. The Cannons finished with an enviable 4-1 record.

The strong running of Leshner, Greyhound back, proved disastrous to Coach Clair Settle's outfit as he tallied three times and added a pair of extra points.

Near the middle of the first quarter Leshner ran 15 yards on an off-tackle play to score and added the point on another off-tackle slant. In the second period he circled right end from the 30 and again added the point on a sweep around end. His final TD came late in the third period on a three-yard smash.

Shippensburg's first touchdown in the third period was registered by Reed on a 5-yard drive though the center of the line. Both kicks by Reed for the extra points in the third frame were blocked by Biglerville.

The Cannons hit pay dirt in the late minutes of the game when Bobby Shaffer swept around left end from the 25. Bob Shetter, an outstanding defensive player throughout the game, added the point on an end run.

The lineups:
Biglerville
Ends—C. Showers, P. Showers, Baker, Zeigler, Bricker, Harte.

BAKER, SLADE TONIGHT ON TV

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pittsburgh's Bob Baker tangles with New York State champion Jimmy Slade in a 10-round nationally televised heavyweight bout with a chance that the division rankings may need reshuffling after it's all over.

Baker, expected to weigh a bulk 212 pounds, is favored to beat the 180-pounder from The Bronx despite the fact that late ring rankings list Slade No. 5 in the division, just ahead of Baker. Slade has a record of 33 wins, 20 losses and 9 draws. His most outstanding bout this year was a knockout of Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson.

Baker has won 35, lost 5, drawn 1. He has won four out of five this year, his one loss to light heavyweight champion Archie Moore in March.

The fight will be carried nationwide by NBC (10 p.m. EST).

Bubblers In Key Grid Game Tonight

Riding the crest of a six-game winning streak, the Bolling Springs face what is probably their toughest and their most important game on the current schedule this evening when they play host to the strong West Shore Team.

A loss to the West Shore would practically eliminate the Bubblers from championship honors, while a win will keep them in serious contention. The Bubblers right now are in second place in the Lower Susquehanna Conference and a win would assure them at least the trophy for the runner-up spot in this conference.

If Hummelstown the present leader of the conference, falters in the stretch, the Bubblers would step in and take the conference crown marking tonight's tilt a "must" for the Springs eleven.

JR. HI ELEVEN DEFEATED 26-0 BY GLADIATORS

Chambersburg Junior High School's football team dominated play throughout as it defeated the Gettysburg Junior High gridders 26-0 here Thursday afternoon on a muddy field and during a light rain.

Jere Burns scored for the Gladiators on a 12-yard end run in the first period. The boot for the point was successful by Douglas but the visitors were off-side and the second kick was no good.

The teams battled to a stalemate in the second quarter but in the third stanza Chambersburg tallied again when Derek Smith went off-tackle from the nine. Douglas kicked the point.

Score On 70-Yd. Run
Smith got his second touchdown of the afternoon early in the final period and the final score came when Englerth broke through tackle and streaked 70 yards.

Only Some Paper Work And OK By League Owners Required To Put Finishing Touches On A's

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Bustling big league baseball and aging, ailing Connie Mack were all but separated today after an up-and-down "marriage" that lasted more than half a century.

Mack was abed in his suburban apartment with a million memories and a check for $604,000 received yesterday from Chicago businessman Arnold Johnson for Mack's share of the stock in the A's franchise.

There remained to formalize the sale of the A's some paper work involving Mack's sons Roy and Earle, and the granting of approval by the league owners.

League Meets Monday
A league meeting was scheduled by President Will Harridge Monday morning at New York's Commodore Hotel. At that session the owners of the seven other clubs in the loop will be asked by the Mack family to okay the sale to Johnson, 47-year-old former naval lieutenant commander and present coin-machine tycoon.

Johnson plans to pay Roy and Earle Mack each $450,000 for their stock and shift the Athletics to Kansas City, where plans were being pushed to remodel the ball park now occupied by the American Assn. Blues.

Only one league owner, W. O. (Spike) Briggs of Detroit, has expressed opposition to the Johnson deal and he would have to be joined by two others to block the transaction.

The Johnson deal involves a total of about $1½ million dollars. In addition to the payments to Connie and his two sons, Johnson and his associates would take over the $1,200,000 mortgage on the A's property plus the $800,000 in outstanding club debts.

Johnson said yesterday he would have a million-dollar fund set aside to rebuild the A's from a player standpoint — aiming at a first division spot within a couple of years.

Both Roy and Earle, as well as their sons, may be retained in the club's front office organization. And Connie Sr. would be given the honorary title of chairman of the Board of Directors.

The apparent end of the Mack baseball dynasty — to all intents and purposes — came yesterday in the setting of Connie Mack's sick room, against a backdrop somewhat resembling the land rushes of the early West.

Representatives of a four-man Philadelphia syndicate — the remnants of an eight-member group that had failed previously to get league approval of their offer for the club — showed up at the Mack home with checks for $604,000.

Johnson had beaten them there, however, by an hour and the Chicagoan emerged the winner. Mrs. Connie Mack told newsmen: "Mr. Johnson is a nice man and he won out. We said whoever got here first would be the buyer. Mr. Johnson was here at 9 o'clock; the Philadelphia group came at 10 a.m. The Philadelphia group dilly-dallied."

A source close to baseball's elder statesman, said he was dejected over the strong possibility his team was headed for other parts.

PICK STEELERS TO BEAT GIANTS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Steelers are a 5-point favorite for Sunday's National League football game with the New York Giants here, but that's no comfort to Coach Walt Kiesling.

"To heck with the odds," commented Kiesling today. "Give me five players to replace those injured and they can make the Giants 20-point favorites. Our team is in the worst physical shape of the season."

The Steelers show seven players on the injured list. One of them, linebacker Dick Flanagan, is out for the rest of the season with a displaced cartilage.

Others on the shelf are end Bill McPeak, halfback Jack Butler, tackles Lou Perry and Tom Palmer, fullback Fran Rogel, and end Jack O'Brien. McPeak, the stellar defensive end, probably won't play at all.

The Giants, Steelers and the Philadelphia Eagles all share the eastern division lead with four victories against two defeats.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS
PROVIDENCE, R.I.—Charley Slaughter, 132½, Westfield, N.J., stopped Peter Aguirre, 130, Los Angeles, 6.

SANTA CLAUS IS COMING DEC. 4TH IN LITTLESTOWN

Plans were made for the Littlestown Christmas season at a directors' meeting of the Littlestown Chamber of Commerce Thursday morning in the National Bank Building.

Santa Claus will arrive in town December 4 and the Christmas lights will be turned on the same evening. The children of the town will receive treats from Santa but, at the present time, no place has been designated.

The stores of the community will observe Christmas shopping hours beginning December 10. The merchants will remain open until 6 o'clock each evening before Christmas and will close Christmas Eve at 6 o'clock. The stores will open Monday.

The New Year holiday will be handled in a similar matter with most of the stores closing at 6 o'clock New Year's Eve and reopening Monday.

The following committee was appointed for the Christmas decorations: Sam L. Ginhams, chairman, Clarence Krichen Sr., W. H. Dorn, Samuel Renner, Stanley B. Stover, and Clarence Schwartz Sr.

Most of the stores of the community will be closed on Veterans

A fund-raising campaign gets underway tonight to secure sufficient money to pay for the overhead wiring of the Littlestown Memorial athletic field shown above.

Day, November 11.

Directors attending the meeting were Bob Stonesifer, William Marshman, W. H. Dorn, Clarence Schwartz Sr., L. Robert Snyder, Samuel Renner, Marvin Breighner and Clarence Krichen Sr.

PLAN SHOOTING MATCH

The Littlestown Fish and Game Association, Inc. will hold a shooting match on Friday, November 19, and final plans for the affair will be arranged at the monthly meeting of the Association on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Fish and Game clubhouse, Germany Twp., near town. The November refreshment committee includes George C. DeHoff, Charles H. Fissel and Raymond Reed.

LHS ATHLETIC COUNCIL DRIVE THIS EVENING

This evening, nearly 40 volunteer solicitors, in cooperation with the Littlestown High School Athletic Council, will make a house-to-house canvass of Littlestown to raise funds for the new overhead wiring system on Memorial Field.

During the last five years, Memorial Field has been used by the Littlestown baseball team and by the football and baseball teams of Littlestown Junior-Senior High School. The field was first used on July 4, 1949, for a night baseball game between Gettysburg and Littlestown in the Adams County League. One of the finest fields in Southeastern Pennsylvania, it is the only field in Adams County equipped for both football and baseball contests.

This season during the first Littlestown High School football game, trouble arose with the underground wiring system. To avoid any further trouble, it was suggested that overhead wires be strung. Realizing the need, school officials consented to have the wiring done at a cost of $1,165.

BOOSTER NIGHT NOV. 12

Volunteer solicitors will visit homes in the community, starting at 5:30 o'clock this evening, to accept donations of any amount. Each donor will be given a tag bearing the inscription, "I Am a Lite Booster for the Littlestown Memorial Field." The solicitors will also be located in the center of the town this evening to contact those who wish to contribute but were not at home when the volunteers called.

Booster Night will be observed November 12 at 8:15 o'clock when the Delone Squires meet Coach W. G. Gobrecht's Thunderbolts on Memorial Field. The Bolts, gunning for their best season since the start of football at Littlestown High School in 1947, have an undefeated record, this year, of five wins and one tie.

The L.H.S. squad, who completed their league season October 23, are tied with West York for the Laurel League title. This marks the second Littlestown tied for a title. In 1949, Littlestown and Dallastown shared the honor in the Little Four Conference. In 1949, the Adams County team won undisputed possession of the title in the Little Six Conference.

FIRE POLICE TO MEET

The November meeting of the Adams County Fire Police Association will be held on Monday evening, 8 p.m., in the Irishtown fire hall.

Prince St. Folk Welcome Couple

An old-fashioned serenading and party were held in honor of Lt. and Mrs. R. Keith Michael by the residents of Prince St., Thursday evening. This affair, which is the customary way of congratulating the newlyweds of the street, began with the serenading. The couple was escorted over town by automobile, followed with a "rattle" band. The group of approximately 75 residents of Prince St. and a few friends of the bride and groom went to the Littlestown Fish and Game club house, near town, for a social evening. Wieners and other refreshments were served.

Mrs. Michael, the former Marion V. Bankert, and her husband have been visiting for the last several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Michael, Muncy, before going to Newport, R. I., where they will reside.

Lt. Michael is stationed with the U. S. Navy at Newport. The couple was married on Saturday in Baltimore.

Town sure looked like a nice peaceful place in which to live. The "Good Wills Day" music was playing and the kids from L. H. S. were busy painting the merchants' windows. The contest was one day the kids could express their opinions about their teachers and get away with it. Cutest trick of the affair was a window showing the faculty arising from tombstones.

THE SPLENDOR OF SELF-CONTROL

Proverbs 14:29; 13:1-3; 16:32; 20:1 Key Verse: He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city. Proverbs 16:32 Self-control is a high personal quality. To ascribe splendor to it adds impressiveness. When in command it reflects the calm and beauty of a sunset. Lack of it suggests a ship rolling helplessly in a hurricane at sea. It behaves like a drunken man.

The passages from Proverbs give much attention to intoxicating drink and to the person who uses it to excess. But other areas of life are mentioned and warned against. An uncontrolled temper, for instance, leads to a loose tongue and angry words. "He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty," Proverbs declares. It is not an easy matter to hold one's temper in control, especially in provoking circumstances, but it can be done. The man who holds a tight rein on his temper is better than "the mighty." It requires watchfulness and determination, and especially reliance on the promise of aid from the Lord Jesus.

Paul used the athlete as an illustration of how one may train himself for life's contests (1 Corinthians 9:25). "Every athlete exercises self-control in all things," the great apostle says. And then goes on to say that the athlete does it for a wreath, while the aim of the Christian is vastly higher. He will look upon his body as something given to him by God to use properly. He will remember the counsel given by Saint Paul as to the care to be taken of it. "Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's spirit dwells in you?—God's temple is holy and that temple you are" (Corinthians 3:16, 17). Anyone who thinks of himself as a temple of God will be guided aright in problems that confront him. The Christian in particular will know whether to indulge in or abstain from certain activities.

Several factors enter into consideration. Is it wrong in itself to indulge to excess? These questions arise in the matter of the use of alcoholic beverages. The answer depends largely on the amount of self-control one has, and is willing to exercise. Over indulgence can have most serious results. The passage included in our lesson (Proverbs 23:29-35) describes the condition of one intoxicated; one who has lost control of himself. It is far better for one so powerless to abstain from alcohol in any form.

The number of men and women who have lost the mastery of themselves in respect to drinking is alarming. They are classed as alcoholics. There are between three and four million of them in the United States. Their condition is a menace on our highways. The National Safety Council reports that intoxication had something to do with 25 per cent of fatal accidents on the public highways. We are well aware of the harm done to families and our society is general by alcoholism. It has been said that in greater Kansas City there are five bartenders to one pastor and that liquor dealers take in five times as much money as the churches use in their work. The same or worse could be said of other communities.

The entire community has a responsibility in the matter of better and safer living conditions. The churches should lay greater stress on the sacredness of man's body as the temple of God. The chronic alcoholic needs spiritual help. Jesus offers it when he says, "Come unto me all you that labor and are heavy laden." He is willing and able to share in every burden. A host of men can bear witness to the relief they received by earnestly committing themselves to Jesus as their Saviour.

Alcoholism has been called a disease. It is surely that, both of body and soul. Science has become a friend of the alcoholic. A combination of spiritual and scientific forces should bring redemption and relief to all who sincerely seek help.

EVERYONE WELCOME

THE THREE OF US

Father and Son—and the Bible! The three of us make a team that the two of us could never match.

It's always been that way—as long as man has possessed holy treasures of truth to which he could turn for guidance.

A father can make a better man of his son by companionship and example. A son can make a better man of his father by the natural inspiration that comes with parental devotion. And the Bible can make better men of both, by molding their lives to the pattern God Himself provided.

For 138 years the American Bible Society has been translating, publishing, and distributing copies of Scripture in more than 60 countries, in 165 languages. Sightless people alone have these precious words in 38 systems and languages. Give the Society the support it deserves!

And give the Bible the place in your family's life that It deserves!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

By WILLIAM NEWKIRK

CLEVELAND (AP)—Spine-tingling photographs of the battered head of a slain woman. The shaking shoulders of her husband, silhouetted against a window in a darkened courtroom. Jurors unnerved by the display of gore and emotion.

This was the setting yesterday as the state showed vivid, colored slide films in the opening phase of its case against osteopath Samuel H. Sheppard.

The films showed the red-rimmed gashes left by blows which shattered the skull of pregnant Marilyn Sheppard, 31, and left her lifeless in her bed last July 4.

Sheppard Didn't Look There were seven views in all. As they were shown by Deputy Coroner Lester Adelson, the state's first witness, Sheppard slowly lost his composure and gave way to racking, silent sobs.

Sheppard did not see the photographs. He chose to sit behind the screen set up in the courtroom. But he could hear Adelson as the coroner's aide described some of the 35 injuries he said he found on the body.

At first, the 30-year-old defendant sat stiff and erect, his figure outlined against the dreary half-light which crept past closed venetian blinds. Soon, his head plunged to his hands and his shoulders shook with emotion.

Recess After Pictures Finally, all of the seven photographs were shown. The lights were turned on again. Soon the state had finished its questioning of Adelson, and the court was recessed.

Sheppard, led back to his cell by a deputy sheriff, waved to his brother, Dr. Stephen A. Sheppard, at the side of the courtroom and called, "See you." Then he strode out of the room, beyond the stares of the curious.

The state, in its opening statement yesterday, claimed Marilyn Sheppard was killed after she and Sheppard quarreled over the osteopath's activities with other women, including lissome Susan Hayes. The defense declared Sheppard was a man who "loved Marilyn Sheppard with great tenderness" and was not a man who could kill

JIM THORPE, Pa. (AP)—The Jim Thorpe National Bank and the Citizens National Bank of Jim Thorpe will merge at the close of business Dec. 31, subject to approval of their stockholders and the controller of currency in Washington.

The consolidation was agreed on yesterday by the banks' respective boards of directors, who agreed on the name "Jim Thorpe National Bank" for the new institution. It will have assets of approximately four million dollars.

The joint announcement said the merger was in line with the recent consolidation of the towns of Mauch Chunk and East Mauch Chunk into the town of Jim Thorpe. Offices will be operated at the locations of the two units.

President V. M. Schwartz of Citizens will be chairman of the new board and President A. S. Loose of National will be president of the consolidated bank.

Pedestrian, 55, Is Killed In Carlisle

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—Charles Hurley, about 55, of Carlisle, was killed last night, when he walked from between two parked cars into the path of another automobile here. State police Sgt. James Kepner said Hurley was dead on arrival at Carlisle Hospital.

Kepner said Hurley was struck by a car driven by Edwin Merle Warner Jr., 16, of Carlisle.

Kepner said Warner told him it was raining and he did not see the man come from between parked cars until it was too late to avoid striking him.

U.S. TAKES OVER MURDER ACTION

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The federal government has taken jurisdiction, at least temporarily, of a case in which James H. White, 27, of Brewton, Ala., is held in the death of a shipmate, William H. Flowers, 30.

U.S. Atty. W. Wilson White authorized prosecution yesterday and the FBI took custody.

The states of Delaware and Pennsylvania had both claimed jurisdiction in the case following the death of Flowers, of Jacksonville, Fla., Wednesday.

At the time of the alleged slaying their ship, the Amtank, was steaming down the Delaware River en route from nearby Marcus Hook to Venezuela. Pennsylvania, which charged White with homicide, alleged Flowers was stabbed

Union Official Is Indicted In Blast

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—A union official has been indicted in connection with an explosion that wrecked the partially completed home of a building contractor who used non-union workers.

The Lackawanna County Grand Jury returned the indictment, charging felonious use of explosives yesterday against Paul Bradshaw, 36, steward of Local 229, General with a penknife following an argument over a dice game in port here. Delaware said the death occurred in its waters.

U. S. Commissioner Henry P. Carr arraigned White on a manslaughter charge after the U.S. attorney's ruling. Carr said he would ask White for a further ruling on jurisdiction and if the government decided it is interstate, he will re-arraign White on Tuesday on a charge of murder.

The station said the program is a "pilot operation" designed to better equip the inmates "to enter society upon their release and find a new life of social and economic usefulness."

A television receiver purchased from the workhouse canteen fund

WQED, first community-owned and supported TV station in the nation, began its "High School of the Air" several months ago. At present about 555 persons have registered and are working toward high school diplomas. Thousands of others are looking in on the evening courses of instruction, the station said.

Littlestown Firemen To Help With Muscular Dystrophy Fund Drive; Elect Two New Members

The Alpha Fire Company No. 1, of Littlestown decided at their monthly meeting on Wednesday evening in the engine house, to work with the State Firemen's Association, who decided at their annual convention in Lebanon to sponsor the drive in Pennsylvania for the muscular dystrophy fund. The drive will take place this month, and will be highlighted on Thanksgiving with a television program featuring Martin and Lewis. As soon as further information is received by the local company plans will be made for a systematic procedure in Littlestown. Volunteer fire companies throughout the nation will work this year on the project.

Robert Koonz, president of the company, conducted the session which opened with the group singing of America and the Lord's prayer. Harry W. Badders presented the secretary's report. Robert L. Snyder, Bernard Kebl and Frederick Kauffman were appointed as an investigating committee for the new candidates, Roy Wolfe, Kenneth Eyer and Paul E. Hiltz. Victor L. Reynolds were elected to membership in the company. Bills were ordered paid, amounting to $209.84. Receipts for the evening were $285.14.

Raincoats, Boots Ordered
Bernard M. Selby, reporting for the trustees and for the committee appointed to purchase raincoats for the fire police, stated that 12 coats had been ordered for the police and an additional five raincoats and five pairs of rubber hip boots, for the fire company, to be placed on the trucks. The latter was the result of a check-up on the equipment by the trustees, who were then instructed to make a yearly check on the same equipment and to purchase whatever is necessary at the time the inventory is made.

Fire Chief Glenn E. Ohler reported one call for the month of October, which was the borough fire truck, with an estimated damage of twenty dollars. There was a general discussion on the possibility of taking only one fire truck to the scene of a fire outside of the borough, instead of the usual two trucks, since both the engine house and the other trucks can be contacted so readily with the new two-way radio equipment. It was felt that no danger would be involved since a second truck can be started on its way in a matter of minutes, if it is needed. The

DEMOCRATS TO MEET PRESIDENT 'OVER HALFWAY'

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats envisaged the job of taking over the reins in the Senate as well as the House today, with a pledge to meet President Eisenhower more than halfway in tackling the nation's problems.

Although several veteran senators expressed some misgivings about taking control with the narrow margin won in Tuesday's elections, Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson said:

"Apparently there will be a majority of the members of the Senate efficient to organize it. If we can organize it, we will."

No Harrassing
The Texas, in a statement issued at Austin, said the Democrats are determined to approach the issues "in a spirit of cooperation."

"We will meet the President more than halfway in any effort to work out a common solution to the difficult problems of national security, of peace and of prosperity," he said.

"Naturally, if we cannot agree with the President, we will vote our convictions. But... there will be no obstruction for the sake of obstruction and no harassing for the sake of partisan advantage."

Have Both Houses
The Democratic Senate victory apparently was sealed yesterday when a virtually complete Oregon count showed that Richard L. Neuberger had unseated Republican Sen. Guy Cordon by slightly more than 2,000 votes.

Barring any upsets in possible recounts there or elsewhere, this meant a Senate lineup of 48 Democrats, 47 Republicans and independent Sen. Morse of Oregon, who says he will vote with the Democrats on Senate control starting in 1955.

In the House, the Democratic margin was more solid—232 to 203.

Not A Repudiation
Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California said he expected

HOOGLIGANS ARE USSR PROBLEM

LONDON (AP)—The "butterfly boys" are giving the Soviet Union its greatest juvenile delinquency problem since the early days of the Revolution.

As colorful as their nickname, the young terrorists wear long-maned "Tarzan haircuts" and brilliantly colored clothes.

Krokodil, the Soviet illustrated weekly, describes them thus:

"A gang of simply youths, ne'er do wells and louts are responsible. They start trouble on tramcars, in crowds of moviegoers, and eating houses. They bother girls and pick fights with men."

Nearly 60 stories have appeared in the Soviet press within the last six months on youthful hooliganism and drinking. Some of them report crimes of serious violence.

the Democrats to take control and added:

"They may find they have some problems in taking on control when it depends on the vote of the Independent party (Morse)."

He said the election outcome was not "a repudiation of the Eisenhower administration" but the normal mid-term gain the outis can expect.

Johnson listed a bipartisan foreign policy among things he said a Democratic Congress will seek to achieve, along with a strong national defense, "reasonable" farm legislation, antimonopoly safeguards in the atomic energy law and others.

He said also he considers the President's foreign trade program vital, and added: "We're not going to bottle it up as the 83rd Congress did." Eisenhower originally sought a three-year extension of the Reciprocal Trade Act with new authority to cut tariffs. After important GOP opposition developed, he settled for a simple one-year extension, which Congress passed.

Machines help us earn more - and have more

WE AMERICANS couldn't begin to have the things we own and the comforts we enjoy without the machines we've learned to build and use.

One hundred years ago it took 60 hours of human labor to raise a bushel of wheat.

Today, thanks to modern machinery, it takes less than two hours of labor per bushel. There are 58 hours left for the farm worker to produce more wheat.

It's the same way in industry. Machines have made our working hours more "product-full." Our grandfathers worked hard but they couldn't produce as much - so nobody had as much.

Thanks to our American teamwork between people who save money, and people with the skills who operate the machines that these savings make possible, all of us are able to earn more money for our work - and buy more goods for our money - than any other people in history.
